

Reading Adventure Station

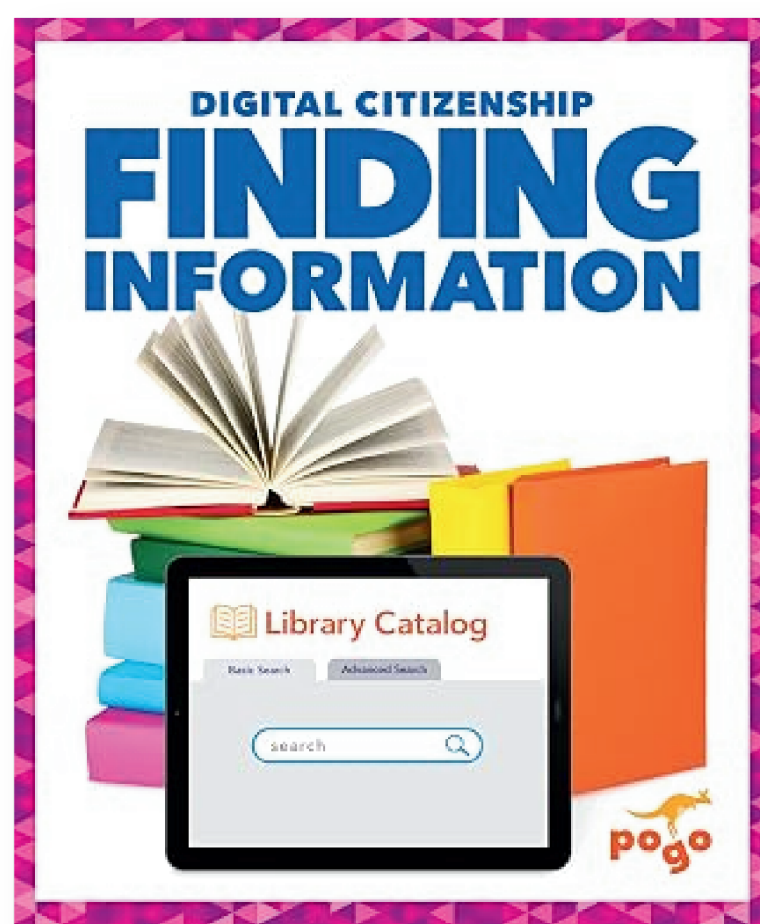

Discover New Knowledge

Reading and Learning from Informational Text

Learn how informational texts are organized and how to find important ideas and key details. The book also shows how pictures and words work together to help readers understand.

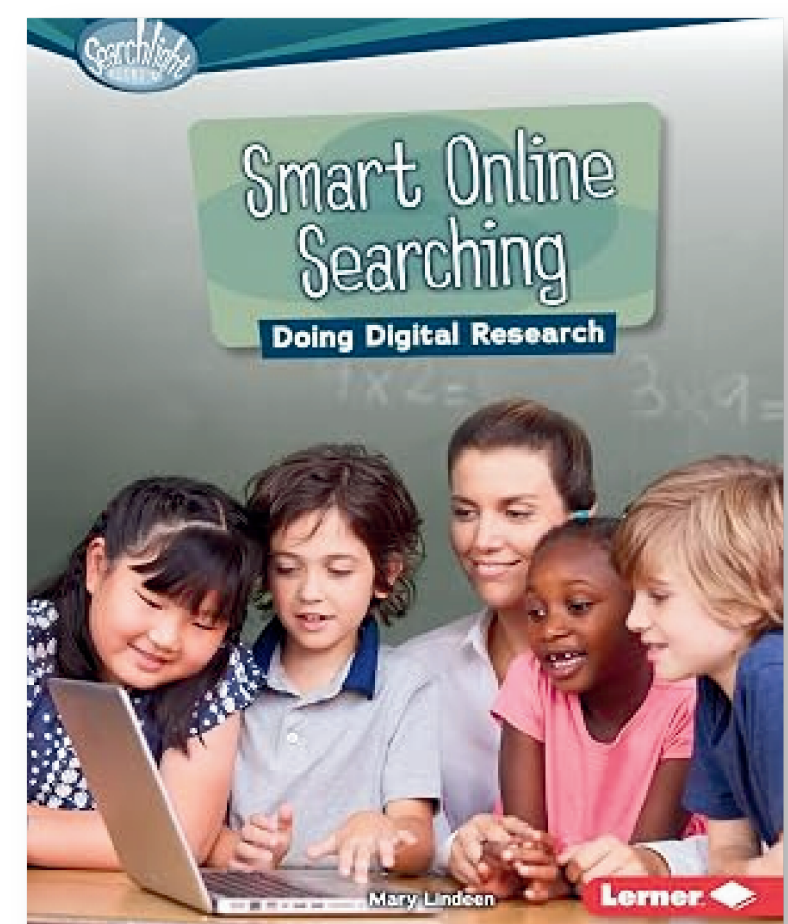

520-1

Finding Information

Learn how to find accurate and reliable information and use media responsibly. The book also includes questions, activities, a glossary, and an index to support learning.

528.4-4

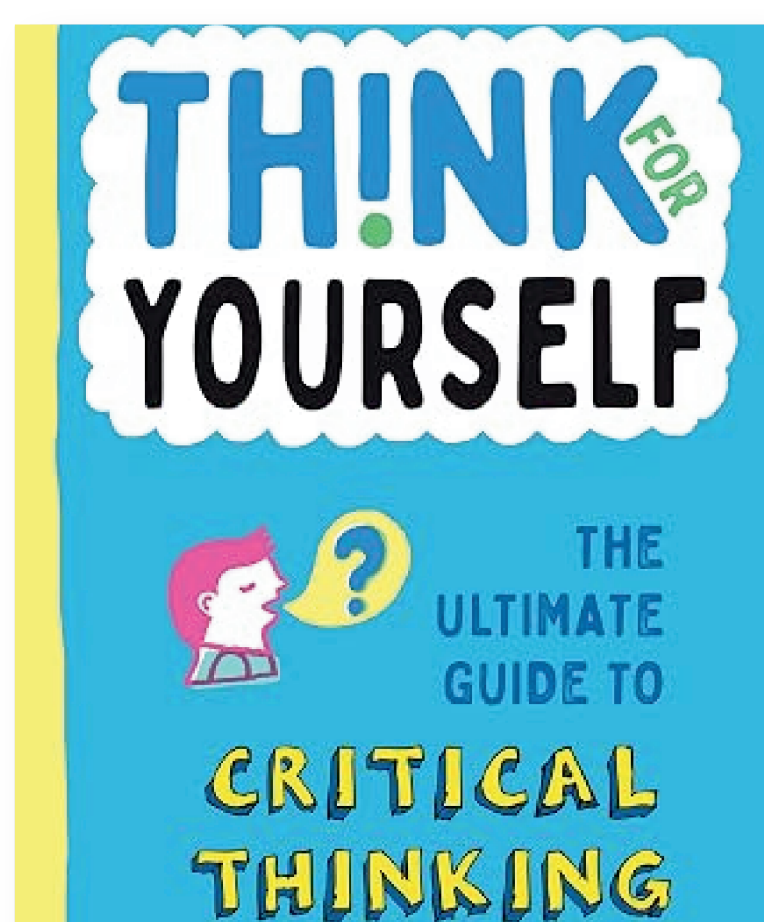

Smart Online Searching

Learn how to search online effectively, choose useful sources, and find the facts you need.

500-1

Fact or Fiction?

Think for Yourself

Learn how to ask questions, gather evidence, compare different viewpoints, and draw conclusions. The book helps young readers think carefully and make smarter decisions.

150

Facts and Opinions

Learn the difference between facts and opinions and how to use media and information responsibly. It also includes questions and activities to help readers think more deeply.

528.4-4

You're Being Duped

Social media can include fake news, bullying, and misleading information. This book helps readers use social media more safely and think critically about what they see online.

528.4-1