Turning the Kaleidoscope of Kindness

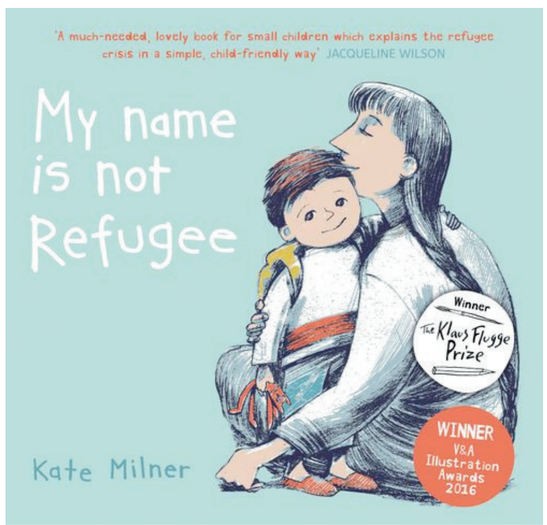

Seeing Unequal Opportunities

The Water Princess

Gie Gie walks a long way each day to collect water. Based on Georgie Badiel's childhood, this story reveals how access to clean drinking water can shape a child's life.

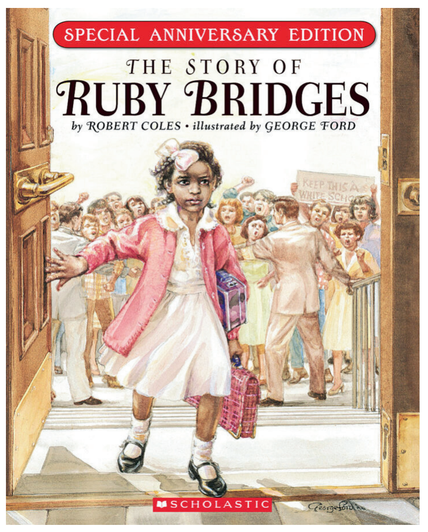

E W

My Name Is Not Refugee

A boy and his mother prepare to leave home and seek safety. Questions invite readers to imagine difficult choices and remember that being a refugee never replaces a person's name.

E M

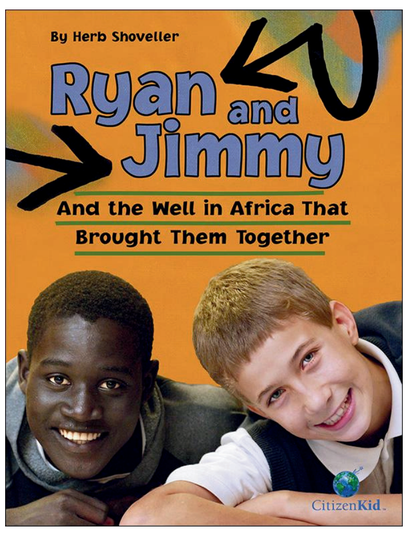

The Story of Ruby Bridges

In 1960, six-year-old Ruby enters a school that had excluded Black children. Her true story reveals how racism can block education, and why every child deserves the same right to learn.

528.3

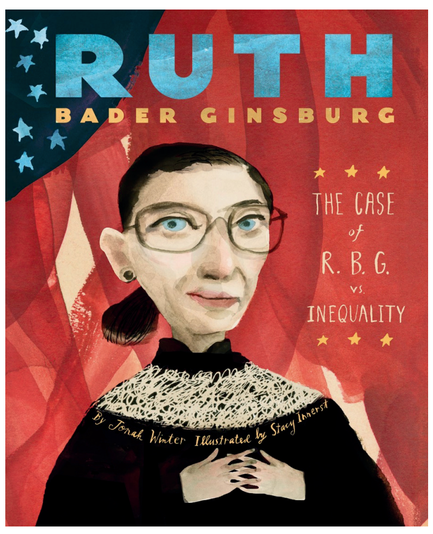

Creating Change Together

Ryan and Jimmy

Ryan's wish to help fund a well grows into a shared effort and a friendship with Jimmy in Uganda. Their true story connects understanding a need with working together for change.

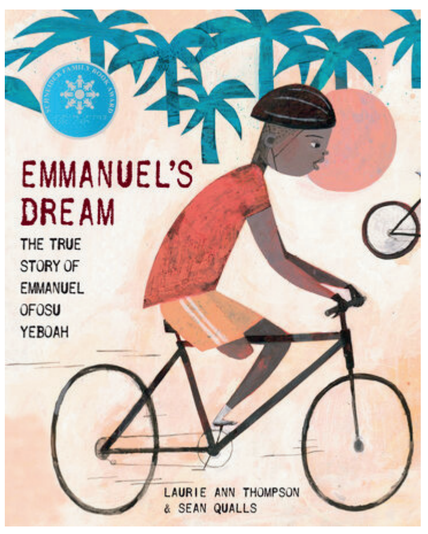

548

Ruth Bader Ginsburg:

Ruth faces unfair treatment because of her gender and Jewish identity. As a lawyer and judge, she uses the law to challenge discrimination and work toward equality.

785

Emmanuel's Dream

Emmanuel grows up in Ghana facing prejudice about his disability. By cycling across the country, he challenges unfair beliefs and speaks up for respect and equal opportunities.

E E